Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Sept. 8 .- The sixteenth annual session of Wabash College commenced this morning, the opening day having been changed from Wednesday to Tuesday. There were seventy men students present, and the prospects are very flattering for an eventful year. This is the last year that President Tuttle will be connected with the college in his present capacity, he having resigned last June, the resignation to take effect next June. President Tuttle thus enters upon his thirtieth year in Wabash College; and he has been president of a college a greater number of years than any other living collegian. President Tuttle enpoyed his vacation at Asbury Park. N. J.; Professor H. L. McLain was traveling in Europe; Professor Smith was in Scotland and Professor King returned with a wife.

Children's Day at the Fair.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Sept. 8 .- This was the opening day of the fair of the Montgomery County Agricultural Association. Yesterday was spent in getting the things arranged and everything in order. Music is furnished by the Greenwood female band. As is usual, there was not enough stable room for the horses, and all the private barns near the grounds have been secured. This is the twelfth annual exhibition, and with good weather the attendance will be larger than usual. A new feature this year is the children's exercises, held today on the grounds, all school-children being admitted free. The exercises for the children consisted in a declamatory contest, under the supervision of County Superintendent J. S. Zook. In the morning nine girls spoke, and the first prize was awarded to Mamie Edwards, of this city, and the second to Nellie Cook, of Clark township. Following this contest thirty-six boys and girls, dressed in red, white and blue, under the direction of Prof. A. N. Higgins, of Waynetown, gave a drill. This evening the prize declamatory contest for boys was won by Harry Owen, of Clark township. Awards were announced on heavy draft horses, dairy cattle, sheep and swine. There were two colt races, one for foals of 1888 and one for those of 1889. The former, with five entries, was won by Plutresse, from Rensselaer stock farm. The latter, with four entries, was taken by Lady Vivien, owned by Anderson brothers.

Swindler Bernard Escapes. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MUNCIE, Sept. 8 .- David Bernard, the "fence man," who victimized a dozen farmers in this county for $144 each, taking their notes for that amount in return for the privilege of selling an article on which there was no patent, returned the notes and yesterday slipped away ere the officers had an opportunity to serve papers on him. In order to get the notes back the victims agreed to not prosecute Bernard, who was held in charge of an officer on a restrain-ing order and an injunction until the papers were returned. Bernard heard of the charges and engaged an attorney, who assisted him in getting the matter to the farmers' attorneys a few hours ahead of time. The following men were caught here: Wm. Sharp, George Slagle, Charles Mansfield, J. W. Broyles, C. F. Mauer, D. B. Murray, V. G. Carmichael, J. M. Hartey, O. M. Woods, Peter A. Helm, Philip Payton, Wm. and Samuel Danners. J. W. Walburn and D. W. Shewmaker.

Had a $2,500 Flirtation. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 8 .- A year ago Hal P. Hughes, now a merchant of Seymour and a dashing society man, was a resident of this city, where he met Miss Annie Geitz, a German girl of respected parents. The two soon became more than friends. In the early part of the year, however, Hughes concluded to sever his connection with Miss Geitz. This was too much for the young lady and she urged him to marry her. He refused, and sought in Seymour one with whom he soon shared his affections. Miss Geitz at once brought suit for 10,000 damages, and the case was tried at Brownstown yesterday, the jury returning a verdict this morning for $2,500 in her fa-

MARTINSVILLE, Sept. 8.-In 1870 Polly Wrightman's husband died at their home near Mooresville, this county. She was left almost destitute, with several children. Some of the children found homes with friendly neighbors. Among these was Abram, aged three years. The mother and older children have, with difficulty, made for themselves a living, and, until last night, had never seen Abram, the baby. He was led to believe his parents were both dead, but recently got trace of his mother. They were together here last night, for the first time in these years, though they have never been more than thirty miles apart.

Wrote "Go West, Young Man."

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Sept. 8 .- The death of Rev Dr. Soule near Chicago the other day calls to mind the fact that he wrote the words. "Go West, Young Man," as the headline of an editorial in the Terre Haute Express, which editorial, being copied and commented on by Horace Greeley, gave rise to the impression that the New York editor was the author of the expression. Mr. Sonle was in conversation with Col. R. W. Thompson, since Secretary of the Navy under Hayes, when the Colonel suggested to the editor to urge young men of ambition and pluck to go West and gain fame and fortune.

A break in the fire-alarm system caused confusion among the firemen, and before they reached the scene, the flames had communicated to a couple of two-story houses belonging to Charles Gebhart. The buildings were destroyed. The loss will amount $3,000: insured in the Ætna for $800.

Randolph County Fair. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WINCHESTER, Sept. 8 .- The annual fair of Randolph county was formally opened today with a flattering outlook for one of the best exhibits, particularly in the stock and agricultural products, ever had here. In the horse department every stable is taken and many animals turned away for lack of room. Two fine herds of Jersey cattle, one of Holstein and one of shorthorns are already on exhibit, together with several herds of Poland China, Berkshire and other breeds of swine. Several fine flocks of Shropshire, Southdown, Cotswold and Merino sheep form an interesting display. The poultry show is firstclass, there being some extra fine birds on exhibit.

A splendid new half-mile track and a new, commodious and substantial amphitheater, commanding a perfect view of the same, are among the improvements which have been added. The condition of the tract is all that could be asked. All in all, barring the agricultural-implement exhibit, the display is worthy of the grand old Republican county of Randolph,

He was locked in a cell the first time since he was shot.

Collided with a Train.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Sept. 8 .- A thrilling experience that almost unaccountably did not prove a fatality occurred west of the city today. A phaeton in which Edwin M. Starr and Miss Neva Harding, of Fortville, Ind., were driving, was hit at a crossing and badly demolished. The horse ran with the carriage on three wheels for nearly a half mile. A broken collar-bone sustained by Mr. Starr, was the worst result.

Only Two of Eleven Entries Started in the Two-Year-Old Trot at Cleveland.

Kentucky's Black Wonder an Easy Winner from Roman-2:40 and 2:19 Classes Won by Mollie A. and Abbie V .- Other Events.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 8 .- The fall meeting of the Cleveland Driving Park Association began to-day under favorable auspices. The weather was cool and the track in fine condition. The crowd was about up to the average for a first day. There were three events on the card-the two-year-old stake race, and the 2:40 and 2:19 classes for trotters. Of the eleven entries in the twoyear-old stake race only two started-Monbars and Roman. Every horse in the party but the colt Roman, by Armagh, seemed afraid to meet the black Kentucky wonder, and he had a walk-away for the purse. It was no trick to distance Roman, and Monbars went away from him with ease. Without urging Monbars covered the mile in 2:224, making the last half in 1:094, and the last quarter in 344. At the conclusion of the race the judges offered a special purse for Monbars if he would trot a mile and beat Sunol's two-year-old record of 2:18. There is no doubt that the horse could have gone the mile on this track in 2:16, with a mate to urge him. Budd Doble had sent word to his brother Charlie, who handled Monbars, however, not to urge him too hard, and the offer was refused. Ten of the fourteen entries in the 2:40 class started. Before the race Myrtle R was a favorite at $15 against the field for $6. Mollie A. went to the front at the start and won in straight heats with ease.

Before the 2:19 race was started, Goldleaf was a favorite at $25, Abbie V., Prime and New York Central selling next in the order named, and the field going for $6. Abbie V. proved that she had the best staying qualities, and after many exciting brushes with the other horses, she landed the race in the fifth heat. The mare was set back to tenth place in the third heat for foul driving by Turner, who held the ribbons over her and forced Prince M. to the fence. The foul was so palpable that the spectators gathered on the quarterstretch and demanded that the judges set the mare back.

Ferndale, a yearling, by Semicolon, gave wonderful exhibition, trotting a quarter in 36 seconds. Following are the summaries of the events: Two-year-old stake; purse, $1,500. Monbars, first; Roman, distanced. Time, 2:2234

Time, 1:4734. Third Race—For three-year-olds and upward; one mile and seventy yards. Business started first and led for a time. Van Zant was at the lead of the little bunch at the quarter. Crossing the back stretch Yale'91 moved up and just past the half he took the lead and kept it to the wire, winning easily by a length and a half from Uncle Bob, who was whipped hard. Business was third, five lengths in the rear.

Bashford at once secured a lead of two lengths, and with St. Florian, Curt Gunn, Charade and Huron as his closest attendants, showed the way to the stretch. Then Merry Monarch moved up, and after a good finish won by a length from St. Florian, who beat Bashford a neck for the place. Time, 1:29 2/5.

Trotting and Pacing at St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8 .- The fall trotting meeting of the St. Louis Jockey Club commenced to-day at the fair grounds track. The weather was fine and the track good, but the attendance was very slim. The opening event, a stake affair for four-yearolds, was a pretty contest. Fred S. Wilkes, who was played quite heavily to win, was very unsteady in the fore part of the bat-tle, and King Chester took the first two heats. After that Wilkes settled down and never made a skip in the next three heats, which he won handily. The second event fell to Dan Jennings, who made sport of his field, landing the race in straight heats. The third and closing race on the card was fought out by three side-wheelers.

COULD NOT GOVERN HIS TEMPER.

It was an off day for the other teams.

In a Fit of Anger Count Gustave Berger Shoots His Wife and Kills Himself.

TOPEKA, Sept. 8 .- This morning, at 7:30 o'clock, a German named Gustave Berger and his wife. Johanna were seated at their breakfast-table with their three children. The husband and wife had been quarreling since Saturday over some rent money paid to them. The wife wished a dollar to buy some clothing for one of the boys. The husband did not wish her to spend the money for that purpose and threatened to kill his wife, who, in fear, ran from the dining-room out upon the porch. The husband rushed for his revolver, followed his wife out doors and shot her through the back, killing her instantly. He then turned the pistol upon himself and blew out his brains. The couple had been divorced and were remarried in Topeka about a year ago. Berger had not been in any regular employment for a year past, but formerly was a book-keeper. Berger was a German count, forty-six years of age. His wife was twenty-six and was remarkably pretty. She came to this country ten years ago to marry the man who murdered her this morning. Berger this country from Germany about twelve years ago. He was highly complimented in the old country, and had frequently exhibited letters to his friends and neighbors which proved him to be a count. It is known that he received regular remittances of money and was expecting a large inheritance. Two years ago he beat his wife unmercifully because of alleged extravagance, and she obtained a divorce. Six months later she was taken sick, and the attending physician advised her to remarry Berger and rear their children. To one of her neighbors she said at that time: "I will marry him again and live for my children, though he kills me." The neighbors say that Mrs. Berger was economical, but wanted her children to dress as well as those of her neighbors. Her husband had no bad habits, but his temper was ungovernable. An inquest was held over the two bodies this morning and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts as here given.

Negro Shot by a Policeman.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 8 .- At an early hour this morning officer Feist, of the Columbus police force, shot and instantly killed Henry Webster, a colored man, whom he was pursuing for the purpose of arrest, The officer states Webster fired upon him first and that he shot him in self-defense. Webster came here some time since with a circus, and but little is known of him. There is considerable feeling on the part of a certain class of colored citizens over the shooting and they have called a meeting this evening for the purpose of denouncing the action of the officer in killing Webster.

Ex-Congressman Scott's Condition Worse. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 8 .- Ex-Congressman Scott is in a very critical condition. Dr. Pepper was called twice last night, and he gave orders to be called at 7:30 this morning. The doctor said, however, that his patient was as well as could be expected. There is no doubt but that Mr. Scott is failing rapidly. Dr. Pepper up to this morning had not visited the patient till 10 o'clock every morning.

Claimed Saturday Was Sunday. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 8.—The Baptist Church of Highland Park charges its pastor with heresy and Sabbath desecration in that he worked Sunday at a job of painting. He acknowledged the fact, but claimed that Saturday was Sunday and he had done no wrong. He has been dismissed from fellowship and his credentials as a clergyman have been recalled. WORK OF REVIVALIST MILLS.

His Modest Appeals to Erring Sinners Have Brought 1,000 Terre Hauters to the Fold.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 8,-Terre Haute is having a new experience. The city has had a reputation for being revival-proof and beyond the reach of the evangelist. It isn't because the city is so very wicked, but the people are not emotional, and avoid extremes. For a year or more the city clergymen and those laymen who take a prominent part in church work have been trying to arouse a religious feeling in the community. The Rev. B. Fay Mills is now here and doing much good, chiefly because his manner of conducting a revival is not of the highly emotional character, but harmonizes with Terre Haute conservatism. Mr. Mills has a plan of work of his own based on practical means of reaching the class of persons who do not go to church and who have a feeling of revulsion for the shouting display of religious fervor. He is accompanied by Mr. Lawrence B. Greenwood, a tenor singer, who contributes much to the success of the meetings held three times a day on week days in one of the churches and on Sunday in the opera-house. All the pastors in the city have united in the movement, and, in compliance with Mr. Mills's strict requirement, are under his or-ders. It is understood that neither Mr. Mills nor Mr. Greenwood will consent to receive anything except free-will offerings from individuals, and it was required that all the money necessary for the incidental ex-penses should be raised before the evangelist came to the city, so there is no taking up of collections. Mr. Mills is a believer in printers' ink. He advertises the meetings with all the ingenuity of a Barnum. Not with loud claims, perhaps, but with novelty and prominence. Banners on the street cars, fresh bills on the bill-boards daily, and small bills on the street. Saturday last tickets, in imitation of theater tickets, were distributed, and Sunday morning the male boarders in the boarding-houses found them on their plates. On the coupon were these words in black letters, "To men only." The tickets were for the evening services at the opera-house, where 1,700 men crowded the house. Mr. Mills talked plainly and forcibly, using but little exhortation. He does not ask for too public a manifestation on the part of the repentent sinners, but depends mostly on the use of cards, blank lines for the name and residence of any one who may sire henceforth to lead a Christian There is a blank - line also for the name of the church or pastor preferred, and these cards, when signed are gathered up and distributed to the respective pastors, who are expected to go after the sinners. At Sunday night's meeting 150 penitents were heard from, and while there has been no great amount of enthusiasm or excitement in the eight days Mr. Mills has been here it is estimated that one thousand persons have been brought under church influences. Mr. Mills will leave here next week for St. Joseph, Mich., and from there he goes to Chicago. It was by accident Terre Haute secured him, as his dates are taken up un-gregational Church, as is a brother now. He, himself, is supposed to belong to the denomination, but he says so little about it that even those intimately connected with him in the work here do not know. This afternoon nearly every store window on Main street was decorated with a card announcing that the store will be closed one hour in the morning and two hours in the afternoon and in the evening to enable the clerks to attend the Mills meetings at the opera-house, which has been surrendered by the Eunice Goodrich company playing there this week. It must be said that the merchants are not doing their part of this with any too good grace. They feel that it is policy to do it, although they did not close on Labor day. It simply shows how effective Mr. Mills is in putting the local workers to doing things they would not otherwise undertake.

The Greek Priest Will Fight.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Sept. 8.—The clashing factions of the Greek Catholic Church of this place have consolidated, and have now resolved to oust the priest in charge, Rev. Andrukoviczo. The priest is enlisting a corps of special police with Winchesters, and says he will hold the church at any cost. The priest has been suspended by the Archbishop of Lemberg, Galicia, but declares he will hold the fort until $1,900 he invested in the church property is re-funded. The congregation has elected a new board of trustees, and demands an accounting.

Corn Not Much Damaged by Frost. CHICAGO, Sept. 8 .- The Farmers' Review says: Reports from our correspondents in the United States shows that the frost has done little damage in any of the States, with the exception of Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas, and that the damage in these States is confined to certain localities, the extent of which will not greatly influence the total crop. In some localities corn is already out of danger and will be so in nearly all of the States by two weeks. Impending Strike of Printers.

ployers have refused to accede to the demand and propose arbitration. If the printers refuse to arbitrate a strike Saturday night is inevitable.
